PAOLO N. CORALLINI SHIHAN

7th DAN TAKEMUSU AIKIDO
6th DAN AIKIKAI

Paolo N. Corallini began his lifelong pursuit of Aikido in late '60 under Motokage Kawamukai Sensei, Hirokazu Kobayashi Sensei and André Nocquet Sensei, who in 1981 appointed him as President and Technical Director of The Unione Italiana Aikido - division of the Union Européenne d'Aikido in Italy.

Since he wanted to meet Morihiro Saito Sensei and visit the dojo where the Founder created and defined Aikido, in 1984 Corallini went to Iwama.

That is when the enchanting meeting with Morihiro Saito Sensei happened. Paolo Corallini immediately realised that the training method follows the traditional system of practice of the Founder and from that moment he decided to follow Morihiro Saito devotedly.

In 1988 Saito Sensei granted him the 5th dan Takemusu Aikido and also the 5 Buki Waza Mokuroku, as well as the authorization to grant Tai-Jutsu and Buki Waza dan.

Saito Sensei also appointed him as his Representative in Central and Southern Europe.

In March 1993 Saito Sensei promoted Paolo Corallini to 6th dan and awarded him the Shihan title in Iwama. Subsequently, he was granted the 6th dan Aikikai.

Morihiro Saito Sensei awarded his representatives Paolo Corallini and Ulf Evenås 7th Dan Iwama Ryu on 25th May 2001.

In 2006 Paolo N. Corallini together with Ulf Evenås founded the Takemusu Aikido Kyokai (T.A.K.).
